BURMA VJ
- REPORTING FROM A
CLOSED COUNTRY

(DENMARK | SWEDEN | NORWAY | UK | USA | GERMANY |
NETHERLANDS | ISRAEL | SPAIN | BELGIUM | CANADA
2009 - ANDERS OSTERGAARD - 84 MINS)
(2010 OSCAR NOMINEE - BEST FEATURE DOCUMENTARY)

Using smuggled footage, this bold documentary tells the story of the 2007 protests by thousands of monks against the entrenched and dangerous military dictatorship in Burma (Myanmar). Frightened, disbelieving citizens become daring and courageous camera people who risk heavy punishment and imprisonment in order to smuggle hidden video footage of police brutality and oppression by the ruling military elite to outside news sources. Embodies the living essence of video journalism. A unique and chilling insight into high-risk news gathering and peaceful dissidence in a modern police state.
