(USA 2007-LORENZO DESTEFANO - 78 mins)

Music, history, and emotion fuel this dynamic, award-winning tribute to Los Zafiros, the Beatles of 1960s Cuba, produced and directed by VFS founder Lorenzo DeStefano. Thirty years after their breakup, the two surviving members of The Sapphires, Manuel Galban and Miguel Cancio, reunite in the streets of present-day Havana, a place full of unforgettable songs and memories for them and for their still-loyal fans. Family members, fellow artists, and friends weigh in, creating a stirring and definitive portrait of the Cold War that separated two countries and the musical soundtrack that unites them still.
